One Public Comment

Mrs. Arellano, a parent of two children at UPCS came to give a comment at today's Board meeting. She would like the board to know that she disagrees with the roll out of the new program, and how it was handled. Parents should have been advised and given the choice to opt out of this program.

F. Directors Reports

Charmon stated that it is exciting to see COVID-19 immunizations have started in our county. Today is the last day of Parent/Teacher Conferences, it is a great time to connect with parents. The lottery will be held next Friday, March 5th. I have been giving virtual tours of our campus, and it has been so much fun. We have a lot of applications this year. We have started planning for the LCAP, with goals on equity.
