

POLICY REGARDING INDEPENDENT STUDY

University Preparation School at CSU Channel Islands, Inc. which operates University Preparation Charter School at CSU Channel Islands (“UPCS” or “Charter School”), may offer independent study to meet the short or long-term educational needs of pupils enrolled in UPCS. Independent study is an optional educational alternative in which no pupil may be required to participate and is designed to teach the knowledge and skills of the core curriculum. UPCS shall provide appropriate existing services and resources to enable pupils to complete their independent study successfully. The following written policies have been adopted by the University Preparation School at CSU Channel Islands, Inc. Board of Directors for implementation UPCS:

Independent Study will be limited to a maximum period of ten (10) consecutive school days unless otherwise approved by the Executive Director or designee. Independent Study requires approval from the Executive Director or designee in writing. In an extenuating circumstance (e.g., serious illness or injury, quarantine, emergency school closure, or any type of emergency listed in Education Code section 46392, subdivisions (a) or (b)), the Executive Director or designee may approve additional Independent Study days.

Independent Study is conducted solely for the educational benefit of the students attending UPCS as a means to encourage daily engagement in school work even during times of extended absence or emergency school closure. No student is required to request or participate in an Independent Study program. Parents are to give at least three (3) school days’ notice of a request for Independent Study. In an extenuating circumstance (i.e., a serious illness, injury or family emergency, quarantine, emergency school closure, or any type of emergency listed in Education Code section 46392, subdivisions (a) or (b)), with approval of the Executive Director or designee, the teacher will work with the parent to implement an Independent Study program in an expedited manner with less than three (3) school days’ notice.

The Board has adopted the following statements in accordance with Education Code Section 51747:

Board Policy: Instruction # 601

- (a) For students in all grade levels and programs offered by UPCS, the maximum length of time that may elapse between the time an assignment is made and the date by which the pupil must complete the assigned work shall be ten (10) school days.
- (b) The Executive Director or designee shall conduct an evaluation to determine whether it is in the best interests of the student to remain in independent study upon the following triggers:
 - 1. When any pupil fails to complete three (3) assignments during any period of ten (10) school days.
 - 2. In the event a student's educational progress falls below satisfactory levels as determined by ALL of the following indicators:
 - i. The pupil's achievement and engagement in the independent study program, as indicated by the pupil's performance on applicable pupil-level measures of pupil achievement and pupil engagement set forth in Education Code Section 52060(d) paragraphs (4) and (5).
 - ii. The completion of assignments, assessments, or other indicators that evidence that the pupil is working on assignments.
 - iii. Learning required concepts, as determined by the supervising teacher.
 - iv. Progressing toward successful completion of the course of study or individual course, as determined by the supervising teacher.

A written record of the findings of any evaluation conducted pursuant to this policy shall be treated as a mandatory interim pupil record. The record shall be maintained for a period of three years from the date of the evaluation and, if the pupil transfers to another California public school, the record shall be forwarded to that school.

- (c) UPCS shall provide content aligned to grade level standards that is provided at a level of quality and intellectual challenge substantially equivalent to in-person instruction.
- (d) UPCS has adopted tiered reengagement strategies for all pupils who are not generating attendance for more than three (3) school days or 60% of the instructional days in a school week, or who are in violation of the written agreement pursuant to Education Code Section 51747(g). These procedures are as follows:
 - 1. Verification of current contact information for each enrolled pupil;
 - 2. Notification to parents or guardians of lack of participation within one school day of the absence or lack of participation;
 - 3. Outreach from UPCS to determine pupil needs including connection with health and social services as necessary;
 - 4. When the evaluation described above under paragraph (b).2.iv. is triggered to consider whether remaining in independent study is in the best interest of the pupil, a pupil-parent-education conference shall be required to review a pupil's written agreement and reconsider the independent study program's impact on the pupil's achievement and well-being. This conference shall be a meeting involving, at a minimum, all parties who signed the pupil's written independent study agreement.¹

- (e) The following plan shall be in place in accordance with Education Code Section 51747(e) for synchronous instruction and live interaction²:
1. For pupils in transitional kindergarten through grade 3, inclusive, the plan to provide opportunities for daily synchronous instruction for all pupils throughout the school year by each pupil's assigned supervising teacher shall be as follows:
 - i. For pupils in transitional kindergarten through grade 3, inclusive, UPCS will provide opportunities for daily synchronous instruction for all pupils throughout the school year by each pupil's assigned supervising teacher via an online videoconferencing platform.
 2. For pupils in grades 4-8, inclusive, the plan to provide opportunities for daily live interaction between the pupil and a certificated or non-certificated employee of UPCS and at least weekly synchronous instruction for all pupils throughout the school year by each pupil's assigned supervising teacher shall be as follows:
 - i. For pupils in grades 4-8, inclusive, UPCS will provide opportunities for daily live interaction between the pupil and a certificated or non-certificated employee of UPCS and at least weekly synchronous instruction for all pupils throughout the school year by each pupil's assigned supervising teacher via an online videoconferencing platform.
- (f) The following plan shall be utilized to transition pupils whose families wish to return to in-person instruction from independent study expeditiously, and, in no case, later than five instructional days³:
- Within five (5) instructional days, UPCS will transition pupils whose families wish to return to in-person instruction from independent study to its classroom program.
- (g) A current written Independent Study master agreement shall be maintained on file for each independent study student, including but not limited to, all of the following:
- The manner, time, frequency and place for submitting a student's assignments, for reporting the student's academic progress, and for communicating with a student's parent or guardian regarding a pupil's academic progress.

¹ The tiered reengagement strategies shall not apply to pupils who participate in an independent study program for fewer than 15 schooldays in a school year.

² The plan for synchronous instruction and live interaction shall not apply to pupils who participate in an independent study program for fewer than 15 schooldays in a school year.

Board Policy: Instruction # 601

- The objectives and methods of study for the student's work, and the methods used to evaluate that work.
- The specific resources, including materials and personnel, that will be made available to the student. These resources shall include confirming or providing access to all pupils to the connectivity and devices adequate to participate in the educational program and complete assigned work.
- A statement of the policies adopted pursuant to Education Code Section 51747, subdivisions (a) and (b) regarding the maximum length of time allowed between the assignment and the completion of a student's assigned work, the level of satisfactory educational progress, and the number of missed assignments allowed before an evaluation of whether or not the student should be allowed to continue in Independent Study.
- The duration of the Independent Study agreement, including the beginning and ending dates for the student's participation in Independent Study under the agreement. No Independent Study agreement shall be valid for any period longer than a semester.
- A statement of the number of course credits or, for the elementary grades, other measures of academic accomplishment appropriate to the agreement, to be earned by the student upon completion.
- A statement detailing the academic and other supports that will be provided to address the needs of pupils who are not performing at grade level, or need support in other areas, such as English learners, individuals with exceptional needs in order to be consistent with the pupil's individualized education program or plan pursuant to Section 504 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. Sec. 794), pupils in foster care or experiencing homelessness, and pupils requiring mental health supports.
- The inclusion of a statement in each independent study agreement that Independent Study is an optional educational alternative in which no student may be required to participate. In the case of a pupil who is referred or assigned to any school, class, or program pursuant to Section 48915 or 48917, the agreement also shall include the statement that instruction may be provided to the pupil through independent study only if the pupil is offered the alternative of classroom instruction.
- Each written agreement shall be signed, before the commencement of Independent Study, by the student, the student's parent, legal guardian, or
